

HEAD FOR THE HILLS!

(The neighborhood bike ride is coming!)

11th Annual Neighborhood Bike Ride Saturday, October 22, 2011

Ride leaves at 10:30 a.m. and visits North Hills, 4th & Gill, Belle Morris, and Edgewood Park.

Meet on Central Street, just north of Baxter Avenue.

Sign in, bike safety checks and bike helmet decorating start at 9:30 a.m.

Helmets required. All ages and skill levels welcome.

NEW! Families with small children and people not up for more hills can do the short route, which will include a fun-filled rest stop with kids activities. Everyone will be together for the beginning and end of the route. Refreshments and more activities will be available after the ride.

More info and FAQs at www.knoxtrans.org

Sponsored by the City of Knoxville and the Knoxville Regional Bicycle Program

